

Defense Logistics Agency

Small Arms Update to JSACG

Date: June 3, 2009

Mrs. Renea Burns, J-3312, Small Arms PM

Overview

- Background
- Current Status
 - Total on hand
 - Non-sight Verified
 - Excess
- Action Item Status
- Way Ahead

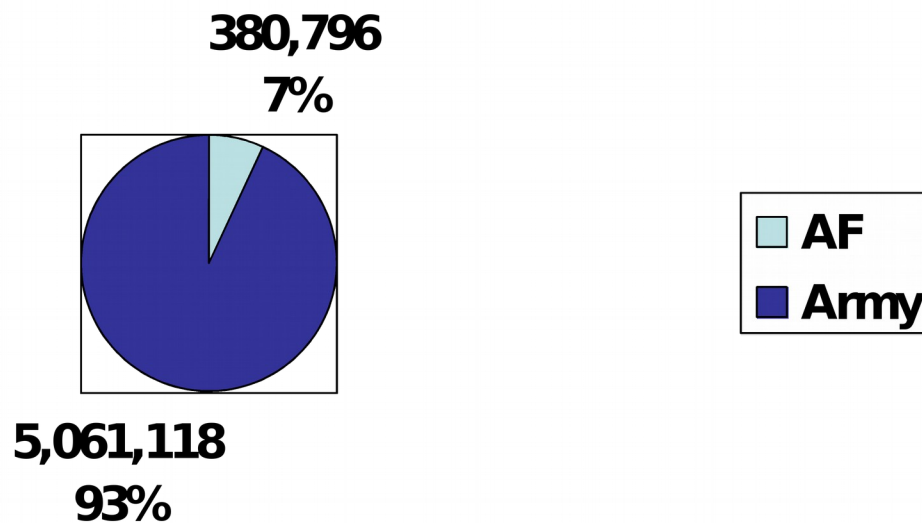

Background

- Anniston Distribution Depot (DDAA) has small arms storage mission for Army and Air Force
- DoD 4140.1-R requires annual reconciliation.
- Army in full compliance since 1997
- Air Force is not in compliance with the sight verification program

Small Arms @ DDAA (5/21/09)

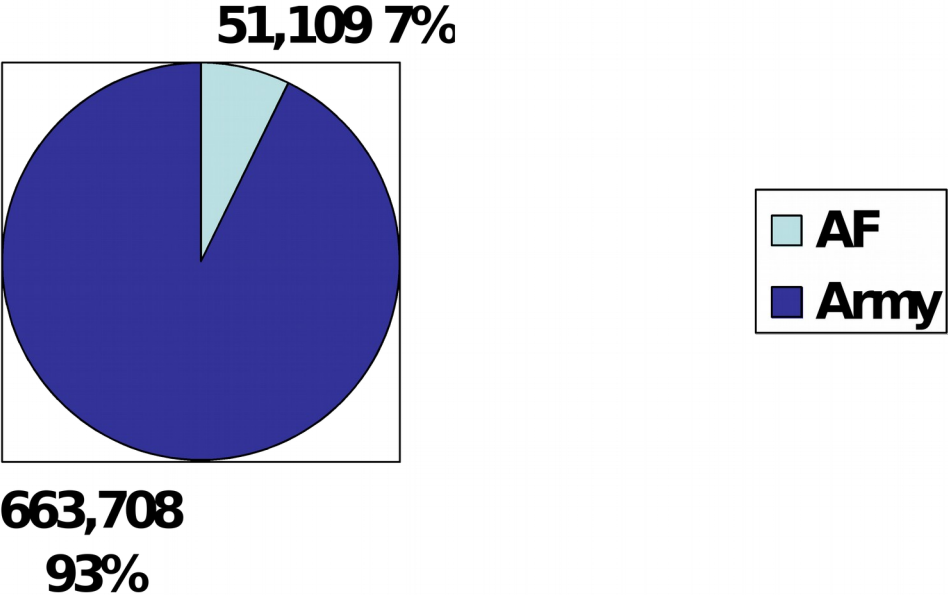

Total On Hand

Sight Verified @ DDAA

(5/21/09)

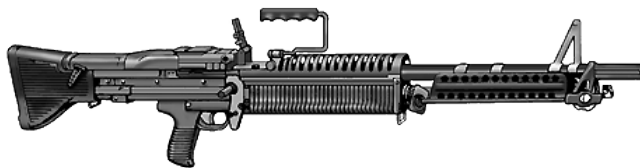

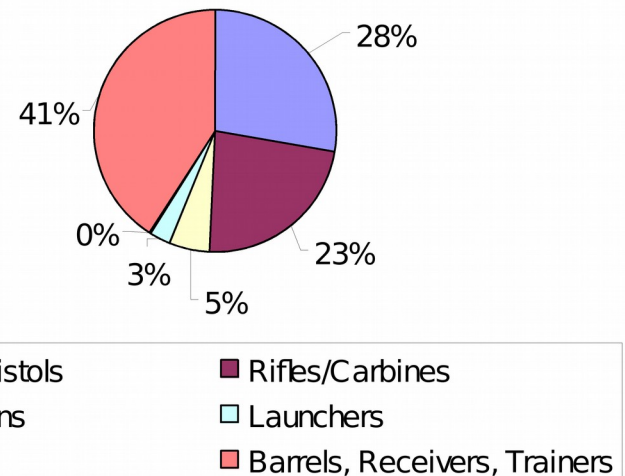

DRMS Small Arms Operations

- Over 52K Items destroyed in 2008
- Two Sites
 - Crane, Indiana
 - Anniston, Alabama

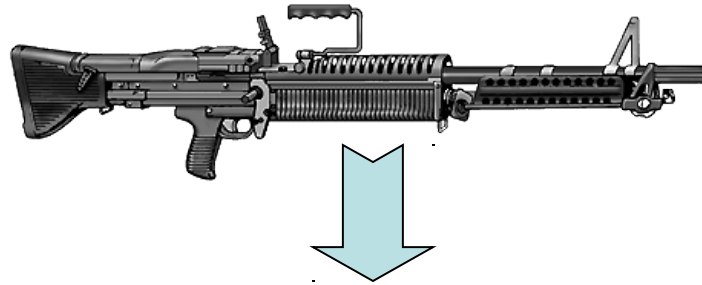

2008 Weapons, Parts, Components Destroyed

Methods of Destruction

- In accordance with 4160.21-M-1 - DOD Demilitarization Manual (Under Revision).
- Cut
- Crush
- Shred
- Torch

Action Items Status

- No proper documentation - Provide examples of weapons returned to DDAA without the proper documentation.
- SOWs – Estimates provided to AF on Sept 08, AF seeking FY 09 funds
- Burnt Weapons - Army is the main source of burnt field returns coming back from overseas, receive approximately 2-3 identifiable weapons each month.

Way Ahead

- Provide JSACG with an update on action items
- Continue to monitor the Bottoms Up Reconciliations & SAX – Small Arm Inventory Count provided weekly